

PrimeMovers Equity Announces Hiring of Managing Director

Singapore, 1 March 2024 – PrimeMovers Equity ("PME") is pleased to announce the appointment of Jovi Zalamea as Managing Director, with responsibility for Business Development, Execution and Investor Engagement, effective 1 March 2024.

"We are delighted to have Jovi join the PrimeMovers family," said Soo Jin Goh, co-founder and CEO of PME. "His strong track record and deep experience in the financial sector will greatly enhance PME's growth and success."

Jovi spent 25 years at Goldman Sachs across its New York, Hong Kong and Singapore offices. He brings with him broad experience in investment banking advisory, structuring and financial risk management. He is a veteran growth markets banker, having worked with Latin American and Southeast Asian markets. Among his previous roles, he was the head of capital markets for Southeast Asia.

Most recently, Jovi served as Goldman Sachs' country head for Philippines and Vietnam where Jovi advised on financing and M&A transactions and was responsible for building Goldman Sachs' relationships with the markets' top corporations and institutions.
